

Batley Bulldogs RLFC

Theme	Key words
Getting the best from partnerships	Partners Stakeholders Community cohesion
Batley Bulldogs Study Centre responds to the needs of its stakeholders and the needs of its local community. Relationships with key partners are strong. The rugby club embraces the study centre ethos and supports its aims. The LA promotes PfS as a tool for school improvement in its vision to raise standards of achievement; the five PfS centres in Kirklees support the LA's locality plan. All Batley schools are invited to attend the study centre to support the LA's achievement drive. Forty percent of the population of Batley are of ethnic background and the study centre promotes inclusion and community cohesion through work with mosque groups; twinning projects; ESL classes for Asian ladies and family learning sessions. The needs of the local community and strong partnerships with the community are core. Satellite provision also extends the high quality provision at the centre. Batley Bulldogs Study Centre hosts two satellite centres at Al Hikmah/ Indian Community Centre and PKWA/ Pakistani Community Centre. Strong partnerships form the basis of the study centre's developments and achievements as partners feel involved and consulted at all levels and share the vision for success.	